

EVS 2018: Newsletter 1

Dear EVS friends,

As announced in Wiesbaden in June, we are pleased to invite you next summer in Nantes for the 29th EVS edition!

First of all, a reminder of the date: 08 – 10 June 2018.

Please find below general information about the week-end.

Hotel

The hotel where we will stay during the week-end is the 4-star WESTOTEL Nantes Atlantique: www.westotel.com

Sports halls

We will be playing in two different halls, very close to each other (3 minutes walking):

Stadium Pierre Quinon (5 volleyball courts) / University Hall (3 volleyball courts)

Transport from Paris to Nantes

If you plan to fly directly to Nantes, you can go to the next paragraph!

If you plan to arrive in Paris, here are our pieces of advice to join Nantes:

- You can go by train (around 2 hours) and get tickets online www.voyages-sncf.com. Tickets can be bought three months in advance, which means you will be able to book it in March. Don't forget that group rates may be available.
- Another (cheaper but longer!) option is to join Nantes by bus (around 5 hours) and get tickets online (www.ouibus.com or www.flixbus.fr). Such tickets can be bought four months in advance.

Transport between Nantes and the hotel

Once your arrival and departure dates will be known, we will give you further information. Be sure that a member of our team will be there to welcome you and help you join the hotel 😊 or leave it ☹

Registration and participation fee

Registrations will be possible from December 15th to February 15th.

The registration form can be found on our website www.evs2018.fr.

For the moment we ask you to fulfil in high priority the first two sheets, i.e. general information (sheet 1) and detailed team information (sheet 2). The third sheet with personal information can be fulfilled later if you need time.

Once fulfilled, please send the registration form to evenementiel@ffse.fr

When we will get your registration, we will send you an invoice with the bank details to use to pay us.

The participation fee will be € 280 for the week-end.

For non-player participant, fee has been set to € 220.

Communication between us

The entire EVS 2018 Organizing Team can't wait to welcome you in Nantes in June!

See you very soon

PS: let's conclude by playing ...

A famous game in France (during meals for example) is to play with words. For example, we like to do riddles.

We don't really know if this kind of game is used in your countries so let's give you an example, from Harry Potter:

First, I am a person who is eying you to know what you're doing.

My second is at the end of the end, in the middle of the middle, at the debut of debut.

My last is what you say because you can't answer this riddle.

And the answer is something that you would not kiss.

Answer: Spider (Spy-d-er)

Here is one riddle. Remember it's a game of words, sometimes answers just sound similar to the word we want you to guess...

Try to answer it and send us your answer at contact@evs2018.fr. We'll tell you if you're right!

My first is the first word of a two words expression that is shouted after a beautiful volley-ball point of your co-gamer.

My second is the first word of a famous song by Nirvana

My third is twelve divided by four minus one.

My last is our man in charge, the boss (not Bruce Springsteen, another boss).

The answer is what we will tell you in June!
